ABOUT JACKIE

Jackie Dixon is the head of VLX, a media and coaching organization focused on delivering information about body, beauty and relationships to women around the world.

Jackie is a model, writer, and women's coach, and she frequently speaks at women's conferences and young adult events. She has a passion for seeing young women flourish in the lifestyle of health and vitality they were made for, and a knack for handling these topics in a way that is both edgy and accessible.

Jackie graduated Phi Beta Kappa from Johns Hopkins University and holds her Masters degree from Georgetown University. She and her husband David, an active duty pilot in the military, and their daughter Juliette, are based in New Orleans.

PRAISE FOR JACKIE

"She is a natural. It's so obvious the Holy Spirit has anointed her to preach the good news of Christ in such a relevant format for such an interesting topic!"

- Kat Armstrong, Founder & Director, Polished Ministries

"It is rare to find someone as engaging, theologically grounded, fun, and grace-oriented in her teaching as Jackie. The women who attended Jackie's class walked away encouraged and energized."

- Kristen Pool, Women's Coordinator, Dallas Bible Church

"You were casual and laid back yet very effective. I think everyone loved knowing you had "been there" and have a powerful testimony. You are genuine, powerful and the women respond to you very well."

- Wendy Howard, Adult and Pediatric Nutrition Specialist
